

HomeTown Bank's Allan Rasmussen Celebrates 20 Years

Allan Rasmussen
Senior Executive
Vice President

Allan Rasmussen, Jr., Senior Executive Vice President at HomeTown Bank, is celebrating his 20th anniversary as a member of the HomeTown Team.

Allan began his career at HomeTown Bank in 1999, and offices at the bank's downtown Friendswood location.

Community involvement has been a hallmark of his career. He is Past Chairman of the Friendswood Chamber of Commerce, Past President of the Rotary Club of Friendswood and a Rotary Paul Harris Fellow, Past President of the Friendswood ISD Education Foundation, former member of the Friendswood Little League Board of Directors, and current member of City of Friendswood Investment Committee and the Independent Bankers Association of Texas Leadership Division. He currently coaches 12 and under baseball and 8 and under softball in Friendswood as well.

Allan graduated from Texas A&M University in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in business administration, and earned an MBA in finance from the University of Houston-Clear Lake in 2002.

A native of Texas City, Rasmussen and his wife, Aimee, reside in Friendswood with their three children Aidan (11), Aislee (7) and Archie (3).

"Twenty years has flown by, and I have loved every minute," he said. "I cannot say enough about the great people at HomeTown Bank. It really is a family. We have a tremendous Board of Directors that has given me the opportunity to grow within the bank as well as get involved in the community. I am looking forward to the next 20 years and the exciting times to come!"

We invite you to celebrate with Allan on Wednesday, February 13th, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. with refreshments at the Friendswood Downtown Bank: 601. S. Friendswood Drive!
